CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

5-9586

28 AUG 1954

Lieutenant General Ralph J. Canine
Director, National Security Agency
3801 Nebraska Avenue, N.W.
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear General Canine:

Your letter of 28 July 1954, requesting [redacted] to serve as NSA Guided Missile Coordinator, has been given careful study. I agree with you that the establishment of this position in your organization, staffed with a qualified guided missile expert, will benefit the national intelligence efforts in this priority field.

Although our schedule of national estimates and other commitments on guided missiles will require some work by [redacted] in CIA in the immediate future, I am happy to offer his services in accordance with the attached agreement, reached in discussion between [redacted] of NSA and Dr. Chadwell of this Agency.

Sincerely,

C. P. Cabell
Lieutenant General, USAF
Acting Director
